

Festschrift for Wes Sharrock

Ethnographic Studies 16

EDITED BY
PAUL V. SMITH AND MICHAEL LYNCH

Contents

Introduction
Paul V. Smith and Michael Lynch	I
One consociate mechanism for the distribution of knowledge
R. J. Anderson	16
In his own words
Graham Button	38
Talking politics
J. R. E. Lee	53
For sociology
Andrew P. Carlin	71
Whose tent are we in?
Michael Lynch	89
On how to include psychotherapists in research on psychotherapies
Ivan Leudar	111
Criminal insanity
Jeff Coulter	135
Craft skills and legal rules
Max Travers	147
A reading of Sacks' Lawyer's Work
Nozomi Ikeya	167
Can sentences self-refer?
Rupert Read and Christian Greiffenhagen	181
Zande magic and the Dawkins delusion
Alex Dennis and John Rooke	202
Systems of sociological refraction
Phil Hutchinson	225
Culture as display
Björn Wallmark	250
The new ghosts in the machine
Phillip Brooker, William Dutton and Michael Mair	272
The orderliness of flow
Michael Ball and Gregory Smith	299

