

Festschrift for Michael Lynch

Ethnographic Studies 20

EDITED BY
OSKAR LINDWALL, DOUGLAS MACBETH
AND DUŠAN BJELIĆ

Contents

Introduction to the Festschrift for Michael Lynch
Douglas Macbeth, Oskar Lindwall and Dušan Bjelić	I
Michael Lynch's law and science studies: A context and foundation for understanding ethnomethodology
Stacy Burns	13
A tale of two laboratories
Graham Button	33
Encountered astronomy: Aesthetics and authenticity in the public communication of science
Andrew P. Carlin, Joana Brás Varanda Marques and Rod Watson	46
Mathematics and the social order
Jeff Coulter	68
Hear them that way
Alex Dennis	80
"THIS IS NOT A PIPE!" Judicial normality and obliteration of the obvious in a Moroccan case of Islamist terrorism
Baudouin Dupret, Jean-Noël Ferrié, Montassir Nicolas Oufkir and Alexis Blouët	102
For Mike Lynch
Peter Eglin	125
Unprofessional vision? Politics, (video)evidence and accountability after the work of Michael Lynch
Chris Elsey, Alexander Holder, Martina Kolanoski, Michael Mair and Olive Allen	139
Differences in the situated work of professional tasters and sensory scientists
Kenneth Liberman	163
On the fraught relations between laic and professional analyses in contemporary EMCA
Douglas Macbeth	178
The indexicality of measuring: Osteometric practices in the forensic lab
Lorenza Mondada, Fernanda Cruz and Talita Maximo	209
The temporal thickness of the lifeworld: The relevance of remembering
Aug Nishizaka	246
Renormalizing science? Postanalytic inquiry for post-normal times*
Philippe Sormani	268
Perspicuous sites for justice? Michael Lynch's studies of law, science, and expertise
Patrick G. Watson and Carmen Nave	296
A conversation with Michael Lynch
Bob Anderson, Wesley Sharrock, Douglas Macbeth, Dušan Bjelić and Oskar Lindwall	313

